Recreation Committee Minutes
Thursday, October 17, 2013, 7:00 pm
Brooklyn Community Building

Stacey Hardy called the meeting to order at 7:05 pm. Stacey Hardy (chair), Dorothy Frandy (trustee), Tari Lust and Brit Springer were in attendance. Kayte Goglio, Sheri Maass and Tracie Meyer were absent.

Frandy made a motion to approve meeting minutes from September 3rd. Lust seconded. All voted aye. Motion passed.

Recreation Committee accepted the resignation of Tracie Meyer.

Mission statement will remain the same – the committee will review mission statement again at the beginning of new year.

Movie Night was discussed – the first movie night will be October 26th. Movies have been picked for all movie nights (October, November, December, February and March). Hardy will pick up soda, water, snacks & pizza.

Craft Show – the committee has received 8 crafter registration and 7 vendor registrations. Springer made a motion for committee member Frandy to put an ad in the paper (up to $150) to promote the Craft Fair. Lust seconded. All voted aye. Motion passed. Frandy made a motion for Springer & Hardy to get banners (up to $300) made for the Craft Fair. Lust seconded. All voted Aye. Motion passed.

Website update – the website is up to date and has consistent traffic.

Get Fit Zumba is going well – we have had 7-9 people attend each week.

Get Fit class options were discussed again – Hardy has been in contact with Fitpro Services to see what kind of classes they can offer and how much the cost will be. Hardy will have an update at the next meeting.

Hardy is also going to be meeting with a yoga instructor – she will report back to the committee at the next meeting.

Other: A donation of $50 was made by Roger Ellis of Treasures Limited to help cover the cost of the bounce house that the committee had at the Labor Day celebration. A BIG thank you to Roger Ellis!!

Frandy made a motion to adjourn. Springer seconded. All voted aye. Motion passed. Meeting adjourned at 8:25pm.
